Confidentiality

Please be aware that final decisions adopted by the Human Rights Committee are made public. Therefore, if you wish for the identity of the author to not be disclosed in the final decision, you are kindly requested to so indicate as soon as possible. Kindly note that, due to the level of publicity the Committee's decisions usually receive (including dissemination via Internet, which thus makes the correction and/or deletion of data circulating online virtually impossible), it may not be possible to satisfy requests for anonymity submitted after the publication of the Committee's decision. The Committee shall not be responsible to the author/alleged victim in any manner for any inconvenience, arising out of his failure to notify the Committee in a timely manner about his decision not to have his name disclosed to the public at large.

For information, we enclose a copy of the Committee's rules of procedure.

Yours sincerely,
